

Siddhartha Moving to Video

The premiere of Siddhartha, scheduled for April 14th, is cancelled. The performance will be rescheduled in the Fall along with my thesis defense and my graduation.

The past few days have been a shock to my consciousness. So much of my everyday had become occupied with the performance. With that out of the picture, I've had to rethink everything.

Siddhartha will go forward as a Video.

In March, we will continue to rehearse at our scheduled times. We will get creative with communication if necessary. We will prioritize good health.

In April, we'll get oscarworthy documentation of each scene.

In the Fall, we will have a great run over multiple nights in a hip-venue.

I look forward to working together with all of you in this bizarre moment. I hope we can find some inspiration in it. I'm stoked we'll have a little artistic record of it with Siddhartha the Video.
